

All American Horse Classic Adds Four Classes

Show Manager Steve Kildow made a few announcements regarding the upcoming All American Horse Classic (September 3-7, 2013) Horse Show held in Indianapolis, Indiana. The All American Horse Classic is one of the crown jewels of the Saddlebred and Hackney shows in the United States. The AAHC is known for its tradition of hosting major national events. In 2013, the AAHC hosts the ASR Sweepstakes for Two and Three Year Olds, All American Cup for Weanlings and Three Year Olds, UPHA Challenge Cup Championships, American Hackney The American Hackney Horse Society National Breeders' Futurity, and American Hackney Horse Society Limited Breeders Sweepstakes for Weanlings and Three Year Olds.

As a result of exhibitor and trainer requests, the following four additional classes have been added. Five Gaited Country Pleasure (Class # 5.1), Five Gaited Country Pleasure Championship (Class # 89.1), Junior Park Pleasure Driving Class # 10.1) and AHHS Youth Medallion Pleasure Under Saddle (Class # 138.1)

Also, Class #38 Friesian Pleasure Under Saddle Walk and Trot has been changed to OTAB (OPEN TO ALL BREEDS) Pleasure Under Saddle Walk and Trot. Class #130 Friesian Pleasure Under Saddle Walk and Trot Championship has been changed to OTAB (OPEN TO ALL BREEDS) Pleasure Under Saddle Walk and Trot Championship.

The Judging panel for the American Hackney Horse Society Limited Breeders Sweepstakes classes will be Jimmy Robertson, Chris Gantley and Clark Clouse.
